TO: Mr. Loch K. Johnson
Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence

Dear Loch:

I have been advised by the Office of Personnel/Recruitment Office that the Office of Personnel does not pay money to placement counselors from university campuses, or for that matter to any of their campus contacts.

Sincerely,

Assistant Legislative Counsel

MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Legislative Counsel

FROM: Bruce T. Johnson
Assistant for Information, DDA

SUBJECT: Information for Loch Johnson,
Staff Member, House Permanent
Select Committee on Intelligence

In your note of 16 August you pass along Mr. Johnson's question about how many placement counselors from university campuses have been paid for their assistance. Mr. Johnson asked this same question of [redacted] when the latter was briefing him on our recruitment program. Mr. [redacted] told Mr. Johnson at that time that the Office of Personnel pays our campus contacts absolutely nothing.
